Europe

Greece

20 August 2020: On Lesbos island, anti-migrant protestors attacked and set fire to a MSF-run pediatric and sexual reproductive health clinic run outside Moria refugee camp. During the incident, a small group of protestors gathered outside, shouting at and threatening staff while throwing stones into the clinic, where approximately 50 staff were working to treat women and children from Moria camp. No staff were injured. The protestors had gathered in opposition to Greek President Katerina Sakellaropoulou's visit to inaugurate a new government COVID-19 facility, which was also attacked. This incident comes less than a month after MSF was forced to close its COVID-19 isolation center on the island in response to local authorities' decision to impose fines with potential criminal charges related to urban planning regulations. MSF have called on the authorities to "take all necessary measures against the growing anti-migrant rhetoric, aggression, and violence circulating on Lesbos, and to take action against those who have harassed and attacked humanitarian actors". Source: MSF

Middle East and North Africa
